

Wouter Brekelmans

Wound doctor

Wouter Brekelmans is a Medical Doctor, wound/podiatric physician, and the head of the Alrijne Wound Center (Surgery). He specializes in the triage, diagnosis, and treatment of chronic and hard-to-heal wounds, with a particular focus on diabetic foot complications. Wouter is currently pursuing a PhD focused on optimizing wound care throughout the healthcare continuum, with an emphasis on multidisciplinary approaches, including podiatric and reconstructive surgical management of diabetic foot issues. Since 2023, he has served as a member of the organizing committee for the International Symposium on the Diabetic Foot (ISDF), where he acts as treasurer and is responsible for overseeing the abstract submissions.
